

Barrow to Host Small Business Forum in Augusta

On Thursday, August 5, 2010, from 12:30 p.m. until 6:00 p.m., Congressman John Barrow (GA-12) will be hosting a Small Business Forum at Augusta Technical College, located at 3200 Augusta Tech Drive in Augusta.

The forum will bring essential resources for small business owners, and folks who are thinking about becoming small business owners, together in one venue. Experts will be available to help navigate the process of working with federal agencies, especially when it comes to getting technical assistance with contracting, capacity building, and support.

The forum is also an opportunity for entrepreneurs to find out about programs and resources that are available to help with basic business operations. Experts from federal agencies, local government agencies, and other resource partners will be on hand to answer questions, share information, and interact with attendees. The following agencies will make presentations: Small Business Administration, Department of Homeland Security, Department of Housing and Urban Development, Department of Agriculture, General Services Administration, and Augusta - Richmond County Procurement Office.

The event is free and open to the public
